LORENZ'S CHOIR MUSIC

THE CHOIR LEADER

Editor, E. S. LORENZ Associates, E. L. ASHFORD, J. S. FEARIS, and I. B. WILSON

This journal brings every month four to six new, good anthems of high artistic style, but medium in grade for trained quartet of chorus choirs. It is recognized as the leading journal of its kind in the world, in both quality of music and wideness of use.

These anthems are fresh American music, not English reprints. They are reprinted in England, and widely diffused there, a tribute to their intrinsic value.

The Christmas (November) number has a magnificent lot of Christmas anthems by Ashford, Lorenz, Wilson, and Schoebel.

THE CHOIR HERALD

Editor, E. S. LORENZ, Associates, CHAS. H. GABRIEL, L. O. EMERSON, MRS. CARRIE B. ADAMS, and IRA B. WILSON

This journal furnishes every month from five to eight numbers of an easy grade, exactly adapted to the needs of the average choir with few trained voices and limited time for practice. It will therefore also appeal to the tastes and needs of the average congregation. It now has the largest circulation of any choir publication in the world, and its music is sung with enthusiasm every month by the largest body of singers in civilization.

The Christmas (November) number will have brilliant Christmas anthems by Lorenz, Wilson, Fearis, and Porter.

MUTUAL BENEFICIAL SOCIETY

OF

Miami Annual Conference of the United Brethren in Christ

CONSTITUTION

Article I.—Name.

The name of this society shall be the Mutual Beneficial Society of Miami Annual Conference of the United Brethren in Christ.

Article II.—Object.

The object of this society shall be mutual benefit in case of death, as hereinafter stated.

Article III.—Membership.

1. Any minister of Miami Annual Conference may become a member of this society by a vote of the society, and paying to the Secretary one dollar entrance fee, which binds him to pay two dollars for the benefit of the heirs of each and every member on his death; the said two dollars to be paid to the Secretary of this society within thirty days after the date of the notice of the death of the member.
2. Membership in this society must be taken within one year of entering into active service in the conference in the case of those coming from their quarterly conferences and those coming from other annual conferences or churches who have not reached the age of thirty-five years. If membership is not taken within that time, the applicant must pay to the secretary, in addition to the initiation fee, a sum equal to the amount of the annual and mortality dues having accrued to each member of this society since the applicant's first year of service in the conference. In the case of those coming from other conferences or churches and who are over thirty-five years of age, the applicant must pay to the secretary in addition to the initiation fee, a sum equal to the amount of the annual and mortality dues having accrued to each member since applicant became thirty-five years of age.
3. The wife of any minister of Miami Conference may become a member of this society, with the same privileges and advantages, upon the same conditions as ministers, provided such wife is in good bodily health at the time of the application.
4. Each member shall pay one dollar annually to the Secretary of the society, said sum to be paid at the annual session of the Conference. The Secretary shall give notice to all members of the time when payment shall become due.

Article IV.—Benefits.

The amount of one hundred and seventy-five dollars shall be paid on the death of any member of the society, to his wife, or her husband, or if none, then to his or her children, and if neither, then to his or her estate.

Article V.—Officers.

The officers of this society shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer, all of whom shall be members of the Annual Conference.

1. The President shall preside at all the meetings of the society, and shall sign all orders for money to be paid out by the Treasurer; and in case of death, resignation, or absence of the President, the Vice-President shall perform his duties.

2. The Secretary shall keep a correct account of all the transactions, and take charge of all the papers and books of the society. Within ten days after the death of a member he shall notify all surviving members of the date of the death of such member, and also the date on which the obligation of such must be met, and shall countersign all orders for money to be paid out by the Treasurer. He shall also see that each member is provided with a proper certificate of membership, and the amount of benefit due his heirs at his death, and sign said certificate himself, and secure the signature of the President to the same.

3. The Treasurer shall keep safely all money belonging to the society, and shall disburse the same only on the order of the President, countersigned by the Secretary. Within thirty days after the death of a member, on the order of the President, countersigned by the Secretary, he shall pay to the heirs of such deceased member the amount of the benefit, one hundred and fifty dollars, herein prescribed. He shall give receipts for all moneys received, and take vouchers for all disbursed. He shall make a full report of all moneys received and disbursed to the regular meeting of the society at each Annual Conference session.

Article VI.

Transfer to another Conference of the United Brethren in Christ shall not forfeit membership; but any member who has been expelled, or has withdrawn from the Conference without its consent, forfeits his membership. Any person failing to pay the two dollars agreed upon within thirty days after the date of the notice of the death of a member, or his annual dues, as herein provided for, shall from that time cease to be a member, and shall have no claim upon any benefits of the society, and shall not be reinstated until all omitted obligations are paid in full.

Article VII.—Meetings.

A regular meeting of the society shall be held annually during the session of the Conference at the call of the President. At such annual meeting the officers of the society shall be elected, by ballot, and such other business transacted as may be in accordance with the object sought by the society. A majority of the members, other than honorary, shall constitute a quorum.

Article VIII.—Additional Notice.

All members who may not have paid within thirty days from the date of notice of the death of a member the agreed upon two dollars, shall be again notified by the Secretary of the time when the thirty days in which payment was to have been made expired, and shall be allowed ten days additional in which to pay the same; any member failing in this, his membership is forfeited.

Article IX.—Amendments.

This Constitution may be changed or amended by a vote of two-thirds of all the ministerial members present at a regular meeting of the society.

CONFERENCE PROCEEDINGS

[OFFICIAL RECORD.]

WEDNESDAY—MORNING SESSION.

The ninety-ninth annual session of the Miami Annual Conference of the United Brethren in Christ met in the United Brethren Church at Union City, Ohio, August 19, 1908, at 9:00 o'clock A. M., Bishop J. S. Mills, D.D., LL.D., presiding.

The Bishop read John 4: 31-38, and spoke on the subject, "The United Brethren Ministerial Ideals." During the earliest history of our Church the minister's work was wholly evangelistic.

Little thought was given to organization; consequently the growth was slow. This was a false ideal.

Their efforts were confined to the country.

Most of our earliest preachers carried on farming, or some other occupation for a living, and needed no salary. Traveling on large circuits, and preaching often, they became great preachers, but were poor pastors.

Now the ideal is that he shall be preacher, pastor, social, and economic leader all in one.

Now the minister must do things as well as preach.

With education has come organization, and the development of strong churches, that are sending the gospel to the regions beyond.

The ideal minister of the present day must preach, do pastoral work, look after the finances, and be a social leader in the community where he labors; keeping in touch with the schools, shop-people, and professional workers of every class.

Mrs. Macklin made announcements for the entertainment committee.

The provisional program prepared by Presiding Elder C. W. Kurtz was adopted with minor changes.

The six front rows of seats were made the bar of the conference. W. C. Niswonger was elected statistical, and W. M. VanSickle recording secretary.

The committees were announced by the conference superintendent. See Report No. 1½.

Adjourned on motion with the benediction by Presiding Elder Kurtz.

WEDNESDAY—AFTERNOON SESSION.

The conference was called to order by the Bishop at 1:30 P. M.

Rev. Wm. I. Underwood, the leader of the song service, led in singing No. 135. Colossians 1: 1-25 was read by Dr. A. W. Drury, and Dr. J. G. Huber led in prayer. Song No. 55 was sung by the congregation. Dr. Drury then gave a masterly address on "The Power and Presence of Christ."

The Conference quartet, composed of J. M. Replogle, W. L. Bunger, G. Mahlon Miller, and W. T. Frank, sang a selection very effectively.

The presiding elder, Rev. C. W. Kurtz, read his report, which was adopted. See Report No. 2.

The roll was called and corrected.

Reports of the following pastors were read, approved, and their characters passed: G. W. Hamilton, Rosewood; A. Kissel, Savona; J. D. Nisewonder, Middletown; J. W. Kilbourne, Arcanum; B. P. S. Busey, Vandalia; J. H. Mayne, West Elkton; G. P. Macklin, Union City; E. W. Webster, Rossburg; J. L. Swain, Union Circuit; R. A. Smith, Eaton; E. W. Bowers, Otterbein; G. M. Miller, East Dayton; W. The report was adopted. See Report No. 3.

After an interesting service of song, the introductory service of the evening was conducted by Presiding Elder C. W. Kurtz.

The sermon was preached by Mr. Moore Sanborn, of Van Wert, Ohio, from John 14: 27, "The Peace of Christ" being his subject. It was a deep, logical, helpful sermon. The communion which followed was exceptionally large. Reverends J. G. Huber, B. P. S. Busey, W. T. Frank, and W. J. Shuey served the elements.

THURSDAY—MORNING SESSION.

After a service of song, conducted by Brother W. I. Underwood, and prayer by Rev. H. A. Bovey, the Bishop spoke on the transformation of China.

Massiveness is the word descriptive of China. The great wall, their big canal, and artistic monuments indicate something of the nation's greatness.

The social and educational systems are well defined. Courtesy and conservatism are characteristic of the race. Recently a free school system, patterned after our American system, has been organized, and is being extended just as rapidly as they can secure money and teachers with which to do it. The country is rich in natural resources, such as coal, iron, and other metals and minerals. Their superstitious fear of the Great Dragon has prevented them from digging in the earth and developing their resources, and so the hand of God seems to have reserved these things for future generations.

Morally and physically they have been terribly debauched by the opium habit. They are making heroic efforts to crush this awful traffic.

The telephone, telegraph, railroads, post-office, and press are enlightening them.

The safeguard against the yellow peril is the Christianization of the Chinese people. Progress is being made, for there are 200,000 native Christians there now, and at the recent Missionary Conference plans were laid to carry the gospel to all parts of the Empire in twenty years.

The Conference quartet rendered an inspiringly appropriate selection at the close of the Bishop's address. The roll was called and corrected. The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

Mrs. Macklin made announcements for the entertainment committee.

The following resolution was passed as an amendment to the minimum salary resolution of last year. See Report No. 4.

Pastors' reports were taken up, and the following were passed upon: E. J. Arthur, Colerain; J. G. Huber, Oak Street; A. E. Barnhart, Kingsville; J. M. Replogle, Greenville; F. H. Bohn, Norwood; W. J. Pruner, Beavertown; G. W. Self, Wagner and Aley; D. B. Rojahn, Millville; C. A. Gummere, Hamilton; J. W. Flory, Miami Chapel; M. I. Comfort, Cherry Grove; G. A. Wahl, Liberty; J. A. Pantle, Ithaca; M. F. Hawley, Newport; W. H. Klinefelter, Springfield; W. M. VanSickle, Olivet, Dayton; W. T. Frank, Brookville; A. Dunkelberger, Sulphur Grove; Geo. T. Powell, Eldorado; H. A. Dr. A. W. Drury spoke on "The Glory of the Father as Revealed Through the Church."

A partial analysis of Paul's letter to the Ephesians was given in a practical, helpful way.

The Conference quartet followed with a selection, which was soul-strengthening to every Christian hearer.

Dr. Fout gave the Conference a burning, helpful, fifteen-minute address, which was greatly appreciated.

After announcements the Conference adjourned with the benediction by Rev. E. H. Caylor.

Thursday evening a rousing temperance meeting filled the entire church, many standing through the lengthy service. The service was in charge of the pastor, Doctor Macklin, and was addressed by Doctor Rutledge, of Cleveland, Ohio. The address was popular, sparkling with witticisms, and so logical that the most skeptical must have been convinced of the righteousness of the cause. Special music was furnished by the local men's quartet, and was loudly applauded.

FRIDAY—MORNING SESSION.

The session opened with a song service at 8:30 A. M. The Bishop read Isa. 52:1-10.

Rev. G. W. Arnold led in prayer. Song No. 9 was sung.

The Bishop spoke on Japan in its relation to missions.

He spoke briefly of its geography, food, and physical and floral beauty, which have had its influence on the people, who are lovers of the beautiful.

The political and religious changes were named. They know their images are dumb things, but the power of habit still holds them to a formal worship of idols. There are now 70,000 Christians in the empire, many of whom hold places of civic and political influence. The overflow from Christianity is much larger relatively than the number of professed Christians.

Song-books—nearly 200,000 of which have been sold—books and religious papers are wielding a great influence for Christ. Organic union is going forward rapidly among the denominations. The Japanese aspire to commercial supremacy; patterning after England, toward whom they entertain the kindest feeling.

The quartet favored us with a selection.

The roll was called and corrected.

The minutes of yesterday were read, corrected, and approved.

It was voted to publish a centennial edition of the minutes next year in connection with the observance of the one hundredth annual session. The committee on arrangements are Dr. J. P. Miller, Dr. W. J. Shuey, Dr. J. G. Huber, Dr. P. M. Camp, and Mr. J. L. Senseny.

The following reports were examined, and the character of the ministers passed: Calvin McNelly, Cliffton, Cincinnati; H. H. Haller, Hartford Street, Dayton; J. I. McKenzie, Harrison; W. L. Duncan, Belmont; Ruth E. Hemphill, Mt. Healthy; James J. Mullaney, North Bend, which completed the list of charges.

Myers, Chaplain of the Marion National Soldiers' Home.

The report on Foreign Missions was read by Doctor Huber, and discussed by the general secretary, Doctor Hough, who gave us a plain, practical, fervid talk, bristling with missionary facts. The report of the delegates' meeting which nominated candidates for General Conference to be voted for next November. See No. 11.

Myers also spoke on the question. The report was adopted. See No. 11½. The Foreign Missionary Committee of last year was continued.

Announcements were made. Adjourned on motion, with benediction by Dr. W. O. Fries.

The meeting Friday night was presided over by the pastor, Doctor Macklin.

After the preliminary service the chairman introduced Rev. G. Mahlon Miller, who spoke on finance. What a man gives is a part of himself. Have a system and work it. Don't stop because somebody kicks. He uses a weekly system for benevolences as well as for current expenses. G. A. Wahl explained the system used on Liberty Circuit.

H. C. Cridland, superintendent of High Street, Dayton, Sunday school, read a paper on the "Sunday School." He believes in the Executive Committee running the Sunday school, rather than the superintendent; thus avoiding "one man power." After reading his paper he conducted a "round table" talk.

Dr. P. M. Camp spoke briefly on the Young People's Society, striking a responsive chord with the audience. The service closed with the benediction by Rev. J. J. Mullaney.

SATURDAY—MORNING SESSION.

After the opening hymns were sung, the Bishop read a part of the sixtieth chapter of Isaiah. Prayer by Rev. Mr. Lowe, pastor of the Christian Church. After singing "Bringing in the Sheaves," the Bishop introduced Mr. Camilo Osias, who spoke on his native land—the Philippines. Their occupations are largely agricultural, mainly because of the fertility of the soil. Their implements are quite crude. The chief products are rice, tobacco, and hemp. Rice is their chief food. The people are kind, hospitable, courteous, and capable of culture. There are no poor houses; the destitute are cared for by some relative. Many worship the spirit of their ancestors. The Romish Church has kept the Bible from the people. Nearly all denominations have missionaries in the Philippines.

He spoke briefly of his conversion to Christ, and his trust in the Savior. The native workers are already taking up the work of evangelization; many of them at much smaller salaries than they have received in secular work. The harvest is ripe, and laborers are few. Many are being saved. A collection was taken for Mr. Osias amounting to $30.00.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved. O. F. Bilger, C. Plack, A. Bittner, and Pearl Brann were recommended to the Educational Beneficiary Committee for aid.

SABBATH SERVICES.

At 9:00 A. M. the Sunday school convened. There were 41 regular attendants in the men's class, taught by the pastor, and 99 visitors—140 men in all, with a collection of $6.25. There were 203 regular attendants, and 207 visitors, making a total of 410, with a collection of $13.84. The collection for the secretaries and conference treasurer amounted to $40.00.

The Conference sermon was preached by Bishop Mills at 10:30 to an overflowing house of attentive, appreciative hearers, from the text, "Blessed is the man that endureth temptation, for when he hath been approved he shall receive a crown of life." Jas. 1:12. Temptation is:

1. An allurement or enticement to sin.

2. A trial or test, which may be from within or from without. There is no sin unless the will yields. Life is a probation—a testing time—a time for training. Religion is not alone to save man from hell, but to develop him. No man knows himself till tested. God wants us to get acquainted with ourselves.

3. Temptation—trial reveals our real selves to others. Job was used as an illustration.

4. To reveal the spirit world. Trial opens our eyes to see God, who is imminent in us. As the angels strengthened Christ, "they are ministering spirits" now.

5. To reveal the helpfulness of God's grace. "A thorn in the flesh," reveals God's grace to help Paul.

6. To separate our sins from ourselves. We are in the process of being saved. "The path of the just is as the shining light that shineth more and more unto the perfect day."

7. Develops kindred experiences and enlarges our sympathies. Suffering is the common sacrament that brings us into communion with other sufferers.

8. Trial as suffering is to fit us for our eternal destiny. God tests us. Are you given a difficult place? Remember overcoming difficulties develops heroes. Anybody can fill the easy places; only heroes can fill the hard places. "Be a hero in the strife."

NOTES.

Rev. W. I. Underwood, the musical director of the church, conducted the music in an admirable manner, eliciting favorable comments from all.

Miss Margaret Macklin, Miss Beatrice Williams, and Mrs. Mary D. Fahnestock were prompt and efficient in their work as pianists. The singing of the Conference quartet and the local church men's quartet, as well as vocal solos by two ladies whose names the secretary did not learn, were all of a high order, and added much to the helpfulness of the Conference.

Mrs. Macklin and her Committee on Entertainment looked carefully after the comfort of all in attendance who sought their help. The entertainment and fellowship with the people in their homes was delightful.

Notwithstanding the money stringency through which the country has been passing, the reports were fine. The total for all purposes being $1,364 more than last year. The net increase of 522 indicates an increasing spiritual power of the Church.

The spirit of fellowship among the ministers and laity was ideal. The Conference was aggressive in planning for better things in the future.

W. M. VanSickle, Recording Secretary.
W. C. Niswonger, Statistical Secretary.
J. S. Mills, D.D., LL.D., Presiding Bishop.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT C. W. KURTZ—NO. 2.

To the Bishop, Ministers, and Lay Delegates of Miami Annual Conference, Greeting.

It is with deepest gratitude to our Heavenly Father for his loving kindness and tender mercy, his protecting care and manifold blessings that I submit this annual report, as superintendent of the entire Conference.

I began the year with some misgivings as to how the plan of superintendency could be worked out, and how the work might be managed to meet the needs and demands of the Conference. But the plans were gradually developed, duties were attended to as they came, one by one, and the plan has worked out far beyond my own anticipations.

I believe all the general interests of the Conference have been looked after, and all the essential needs, as far as superintendence is concerned, have been reasonably met.

I have not presumed to do this work in man's wisdom or strength, but with a profound sense of man's weakness and inability to successfully direct the great work of the Kingdom of God on earth, and to carry out his plans and purposes for the redemption of the world without divine help and guidance.

I think that I can honestly say that I have done a full year's work, having been constantly at work, and for a good part of the time seven days in the week. I met all my regular appointments during the year, and attended to all the duties of my office with a desire to better the interests of the Conference in all its various departments of work, and also without fear or favor. The reports will show that a good and faithful year's work has been done by the pastors, and that substantial progress has been made.

There were at the beginning of the year 109 organized churches with 57 charges. Two new classes were organized during the year, one at Ft. McKinley on Fairview charge, and one at Forestville on the Cherry Grove charge.

RESIGNATIONS.

J. Pantle and G. A. Wahl were both dissatisfied with their appointments as made by the last Annual Conference, and desired to return to their old fields of labor. According to a provision in the Discipline covering such cases, and in conjunction with E. P. Huddle and J. E. Yingling, both being acquainted with the situation, I exchanged these brethren so each remained on his old field of labor.

On August 24 K. M. Karnegie resigned the Harrison charge to take effect at once, and on September 14 I appointed J. I. McKenzie to fill the vacancy.

On September 2 I appointed Rev. C. A. Weaver to supply the Oregonia and Utica appointments on the Springboro charge, which was jointly served by him and G. L. Stine appointed to Springboro.

On September 14 E. P. Huddle resigned the Otterbein charge on account of ill health, and on October 15 I appointed E. W. Bowers to fill the vacancy.

On October 22 B. F. Farris resigned the Millville appointment, and November 3 I appointed B. D. Rojahn to fill the vacancy.

On March 9 G. L. Stine resigned the Springboro appointment, and March 27 C. A. Weaver resigned the Utica and Oregonia appointments, and on April 26 I appointed H. A. Deardorf to supply to the close of the year.

On April 15 A. S. Lehman resigned the Bowlusville charge, and I appointed C. R. Fralich to fill the vacancy.

On June 17 C. H. Snyder resigned Fairview, and I appointed H. A. Bovey to fill the vacancy.

The Rossburg Circuit was left to be supplied at the last Annual Conference, and on October 15 I appointed E. W. Webster to fill the vacancy.

This part of the work has caused no little anxiety and worry, but I tried to do the best possible in all the various conditions.

DEATHS.

Wm. McKee, who joined the Conference in 1868, and served as pastor, missionary presiding elder, and missionary treasurer, died October 5, 1907, and passed to his reward.

Christian Bodey, formerly a member of the Auglaize Conference, died on December 19, at St. Paris, Ohio.

D. Myers, a member of the Union Class, and many years a local preacher, passed away February, 1908.

Geo. Witters, a quarterly Conference preacher, member of Union City Class, and who served the Rossburg and Yorkshire circuits, died February 13, 1908.

J. W. Bovey, for many years a member of this Conference, but out of active service for a number of years, died April 28.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hamilton, wife of Rev. Geo. Hamilton, died October 22. She was a loyal and interested member of this Conference at every annual session, a good wife, and devoted servant of the Lord. Appropriate services will be held in memory of these departed servants of Christ.

Also many worthy and devoted laymen passed away during the year. Dr. J. C. Mosshammer, of our North Dayton Church, who was just entering upon a career of great usefulness, and others who wrought well in other places.

DEDICATIONS AND REOPENINGS.

The State Road Church, which was destroyed by storm August 29, 1906, was dedicated on the twenty-ninth of September, with appropriate services conducted by Dr. W. O. Fries.

This is a frame building, with main auditorium thirty-six by forty-six, and Sunday-school room twenty by thirty. It is well furnished, with basement, furnace, a good lighting system, beautifully frescoed, and is one of the best country churches in the Conference. The cost was about $6,000. $3,500 was provided by insurance, and $1,800 was provided for on day of dedication. Brother Mayne, the pastor, has just closed his fourth year.

The Antioch church was remodeled and dedicated November 3. The services were conducted by Dr. H. H. Fout. This is a brick structure, with main auditorium and Sunday-school room, basement and furnace, lighting plant, and well furnished, costing $4,500. $400 of this was secured on day of dedication. This is one of the best congregations in the Conference, and deserves great credit for this enterprise. Brother Frank, the pastor, is also closing his fourth year.

Our Norwood church was remodeled during the early fall under the direction of F. H. Bohn, who has served for three years. This is a two-story brick structure, which cost $6,000, beautifully located in a good section of the city. The debt is being carried by the congregation. The repairs, which cost $534, were provided for on the day of reopening. Dr. H. H. Fout had charge of these services. Interest is paid to date and $300 on principal.

The Rossburg church, on Rossburg Circuit, was damaged by storm in the early spring. The roof was partly blown off, and the interior was ruined. The trustees set to work at once to secure funds to repair and make additional improvements. The formal reopening took place on June 14. Rev. P. M. Camp conducted the services. The cost of repairs and improvements will amount to about $700. E. W. Webster is the pastor.

The Castine church was also remodeled. The pulpit was changed, the seats rearranged, the church papered, new lighting plant, and steam-heating furnace installed, all costing $1,100, $800 of which has been paid. This also speaks well for the pastor, G. T. Powell, and the enterprising congregation and board of trustees. The reopening took place on August 16. Doctor Fout had charge of these services.

The cornerstone of the new church at Hamilton was laid on the afternoon of May 30, with appropriate services. Dr. H. H. Fout also conducted these services. Doctor Shupe was also present, and made an address. This is a brick building, with basement under the entire building, furnace, and modern improvements, especially arranged for Sunday-school purposes. The contract price is $9,400; $700 was secured on day of corner-stone laying, and the finances are well provided for. This is one of our new mission churches, and the congregation deserves great credit, with the pastor, C. A. Gummere, for this splendid building and their vision and enterprise. The membership has doubled during the year. The prospects are good, and the congregation need our loyal support.

The cornerstone of the new church at Johnsville was laid September 1. This is also a brick structure, with main auditorium and Sunday-school room, with basement under entire building, furnace and lighting system, elevated floor, costing about $10,000, and will be ready for dedication in the near future. G. A. Wahl is the pastor, and with the board of trustees should be commended for this splendid addition to the church-buildings of the Conference.

IMPROVEMENTS.

Many of the churches have made improvements on church property, and have been diligent in paying off debts.

Cumminsville has paid $450 on balance due the Branch Church Erection Society, and $46 on improvements. Clifton has about completed the church-building, and completed the parsonage so the pastor could move in on March 1. This is a great improvement to our property, makes an elegant and commodious home for the pastor, and is worth $300 in rent. The congregation has done excellent work in this mission, and is destined to be a great factor in the moral and spiritual life of that section of Cincinnati. $3,670.61 was paid on new building fund, $2,000 of which was secured from General Church Erection, and $1,670.61 from congregation.

Cherry Grove charge spent $350 on improvements at Five Mile Church and Cherry Grove.

Colerain improved the parsonage by coat of paint and other repairs costing $55.

The First Church paid $5,865.72 on their debt.

East End spent $50 in painting church, and collected $600 in cash toward new building fund.

High Street repapered the old church at cost of $100, and paid on new lot $1,600.

Troy Street built a new parsonage during the year, costing, with donated labor, $2,400. On this $650 has been paid. This congregation also paid $600 on debt, and $169 on interest. The parsonage is valued at $180 in rent per year.

Fairview repainted and respouted the church at a cost of $54.00, and also purchased two new church lots, at a cost of $900, on which $300 has been paid.

Ft. McKinley also made improvements amounting to $244. The building, with the two lots donated by M. S. Benn, are valued at $1,000.

Belmont paid on church debt $836.82, and has subscription to cover most all of the balance of $1,900. This mission has done excellent work during the year.

Home Avenue purchased a new bell costing $130.

Miami Chapel repapered church, installed new furnace, and other repairs costing $382.

Eaton collected $225 for improvements, and is planning to enlarge the church and veneer the entire building with cement blocks, costing about $2,000, of which $1,100 has been secured on subscription.

Greenville completed the repairs begun one year ago. New furnace, new roof, and other items costing $918.

Germantown spent $200 on repairs.

Ithaca has about secured the balance on the parsonage debt of $697, and $100 has been paid.

Baltimore collected $1,500 on church debt, and has the balance secured in good subscription.

Liberty has collected on new church-building at Johnsville $3,138, and for repairs at other points $750.

Lewisburg spent $135 in repairs.

Middletown completed new parsonage, worth with lot $4,000, and valued at $200 in rent. They still owe $700.

Mt. Healthy church has been improved by painting and other repairs costing $90.

The Baltimore church on the New Haven Circuit was repapered, and a new lighting system installed at a cost of $90.

North Bend is planning to build a new church. Two lots were purchased two years ago, and $96 secured on building fund. Forty new members were received during a gracious revival, and now a new building is the next step, which will be pushed at once.

$100 was spent for repairs on the Zion appointment.

The New Hope congregation celebrated their one hundredth anniversary in June with appropriate services. The basement was completed and improvements made amounting to $805, and $150 was paid on parsonage debt. A new furnace was installed, a new lighting system, and the basement completely furnished.

Piqua has taken on new life. A gracious revival was held in February; thirty-three have been added to the church, a new location has been purchased, the board of trustees was completely reorganized, and plans have been accepted for a new $9,000 building. The foundation is being laid at this time, and the building will be erected at once. The congregation has paid $693 on the building fund.

Rosewood put in a new lighting system costing $78.

Caylor Chapel also made repairs costing $93, and the Abbottsville church on the same circuit has been improved by new roof, paint and paper, bell tower, flues, and porch, all costing about $950, which has been secured in subscription and $674 paid in. We have no class here at present. A new board of trustees was elected, and a Sunday-school will be organized.

Springfield spent $450 in new sheds, walks, and other improvements.

Sulphur Grove built an addition to church, and Beardshear on same charge put a basement under their church, and will install a new furnace, all costing $675.

A new lighting system was installed at Salem, costing $145. Philipsburg also installed a new lighting plant at $153, and Arlington has been paying on church debt, making a total for improvements and new building of $1,165.

Union City has had a good year under the leadership of Doctor Macklin. Sixty new members have been received, and $909 has been collected on subscription; also repairs on parsonage amounting to $14. $629 is due on subscription, and indebtedness is $1,300.

Vandalia made improvements amounting to $135. Olivet has paid interest to date and $568 on debt.

Zion class, on the Waterhouse Circuit, put a new roof on the church, and new lights in the church costing $120.

Union Circuit spent $100 on repairs. The class at Jacksonburg was reorganized with fourteen members. J. H. Mayne conducted a revival during the winter in which some were saved, and others reclaimed, and J. L. Swain has been preaching for them every two weeks on Sunday afternoon, and reorganized the class July 15.

Summit Street collected $4,470 on building fund.

Hartford Street about $225 on repairs.

Oak Street about $200 in improvements.

Aley Chapel elevated the church and put a new basement under the entire building, installed a new furnace, all costing $472.

A lot was donated to the Conference at College Hill by Mr. Pierson. A canvass was made of the community, and seventy-seven adults and fifty-seven children pledged their support to a Sunday school and new church enterprise. The lot is valued at $700.

These facts and figures are given in order to give credit to work done, and to show the interest our people are taking in church property and improvements.

MINISTERS.

There are at present twenty-one quarterly conference preachers in the Conference. License was granted to twelve during the year.

U. B. Mayne and C. M. Coleman, from West Elkton; Norman Bevis and Geo. Weik, from Colerain; Walter VanSaun, from Cherry Grove; G. E. Moody and Ben Baily, from Lockington; Maud Hoyle, from Springfield; Ella Hamilton, deaconess license, from Rosewood; Adda May, deaconess license, from Lewisburg; Mrs. G. W. Kitzmiller, deaconess license, from First Church; Moore Sanborn, quarterly conference license, from Riverdale.

The following licenses were renewed: Chas. Hetzler and Sam Brill, from West Elkton; L. E. Walters, from North Dayton; Harvey Witters, from Miamisburg; Lewis Hahn, from High Street; Chas. Plack, from Middletown.

The following were recommended for admission into the Conference: Pearl Brann and J. A. Albright, by the Troy Street quarterly conference; Chas. Plack, by the Middletown quarterly conference.

Osa D. Welbaum has asked for his transfer to the Neosho Conference.

REVIVALS.

Gracious revivals were held on many fields of labor. The pastors all labored faithfully, some with greater and others with a less degree of success. The refreshing showers of God's grace have quickened the life of the Church, and many souls have been saved. The number of conversions is approximately 1,200, and number of accessions 1,400.

LITERATURE.

Most of our Sunday schools are taking a good supply of our own literature. A few schools are taking some literature other than our own. The Bible Teacher, Adult Quarterly, and Friend have a good circulation. According to my records 1,156 Telescopes are taken, 68 less than last year, and 3,862 Watchwords are taken, an increase of 333.

I have emphasized the importance of supplying our Sunday schools and homes with our own literature, for I believe this is a great factor in developing loyal church members.

SALARIES.

The problem of ministerial support is one which is of vital importance to our Church. An effort has been made this year to increase the salaries, and a good increase has been secured. I am also glad to state that on the majority of fields there is a desire to pay better salaries, and by a more systematic effort much more can be done.

Last year the total amount paid was $40,723 on fifty-eight fields of labor, making an average of $701. The salaries were increased on three fields of labor this year from $25 to $200, making the average $755.

The minimum salary proposition affected seven fields of labor: New Hope, Clifton, Yorkshire, Harrison, Union Circuit, and Olivet. All other charges were paying, or agreed to pay at least $500 and parsonage. Yorkshire failed to meet the requirements of the resolution, and so was ruled out. Harrison failed to keep the contract with the preacher, and Brother Swain, pastor of Union Circuit, refused to move on the charge; so these were also ruled out, leaving New Hope, Piqua, Clifton, and Olivet, which will require $185 to meet the requirements of the resolution.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

There were at the beginning of the year one hundred and eleven Sunday schools, with an enrollment of 16,011. No new schools were organized. Most of the Sunday schools have done excellent work during the year. Many have organized classes, and are emphasizing the adult movement, and quite a number of our schools have men's classes, and are pushing the men's movement. Sixty-four schools have taken missionary offerings during the year, most of these monthly or quarterly. Children's Day was observed by a majority of the schools, and thirty-five charges reported offerings amounting to $203.51.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETIES.

There were at beginning of year seventy-four senior societies, with an enrollment of 2,922, and forty-five junior, with 1,749 enrolled. Some new societies were organized, and some old ones disbanded, but the majority have maintained themselves, and have done good work.

The Executive Committee of the Branch made an apportionment to all of the societies amounting to $1,050 for missions, which was accepted in full by most of the societies; and forty-four senior, seven junior, two intermediate societies paid $625. The young people have been diligent in mission study. Fifty foreign study classes and thirty-three home study classes were reported. A goodly number observed the anniversary day. Twenty-two in all made offerings of $93.23 for the Boys' Home, at Shenge, Africa.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

I recommend that the Home Mission, Church Erection, and Church Extension Boards be consolidated so that there may be no confusion as to notes, mortgages, and securities, and that the funds may be under the control of one board, thus securing unity of action in the mission work of the Conference.

2. That an assessment be made for home missions, all of which is to go direct to the Home Mission Board, and that all the assessment for Conference missions be made under Conference Church Extension.

3. That all churches having loans from Conference Church Erection Board be charged interest after a period of five years. This is for the purpose that every congregation carry its own debt as soon as possible, and that the church erection-funds be returned to be used in other places.

4. That the assessment for preachers aid be increased so that there may be sufficient in this fund to retire the brethren who have given their life in service, on a respectable pension, and that a graded system be adopted according to the years of service rendered.

5. That the superintendent be authorized to insure all church-houses not now insured, and the cost be charged to the local congregation. There are quite a number of church-houses that are not insured. This is Conference property and should be properly looked after.

6. That all preachers not ordained having charges be authorized by the Conference to conduct their own communion services and administer the sacraments.

7. That in each congregation a custodian of records be elected who shall hold all old records of Sunday schools, class books, official board records, and deeds, incorporative papers, etc.

8. That the Baptist Church in West Middletown be purchased, a class organized, and made a part of the Union Circuit.

9. That Rev. O. F. Bilger be favorably considered as an applicant for Educational Aid.

10. That the Conference cease to publish the names and amounts of contributors to Conference assessments.

11. That a Sunday school be organized at College Hill, and that some available man be sent by this Conference to organize the work and develop the field. Provision should be made for traveling and incidental expenses, and the matter of support left to the community.

PERSONAL.

I have tried to carry out the plans of the Conference as outlined one year ago, and held all the business meetings the first quarter, and also the last quarter. During the second and third quarters I held twenty-two quarterly meetings, and spent thirteen weeks in assisting pastors in revival work and raising funds for new buildings.

I have been able to meet all my regular appointments during the entire year, preached one hundred and fifty times, conducted forty-two communion services, held one hundred and thirty-six business meetings, sent out five hundred and forty-one pieces of mail matter, and attended to much incidental correspondence.

I want to thank the brethren for their courtesy and kindness, and the various congregations for their uniform good will and appreciation, and earnestly pray God's benediction upon the work of the churches, and that his Kingdom may come, his will be done in earth as it is done in heaven.

Respectfully submitted,
C. W. KURTZ,
Superintendent.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHURCH ERECTION—NO. 3.

A swarm of bees hanging on a limb in the tangled wildwood gives no promise of abundant honey. A bee-gum, however humble it may seem to be, will afford more honey for its busy hive and humble owner than all the swarms of bees hanging on the brambles in the forests. Bees left to themselves will find a home and a storehouse for their nectrous treasure.

The church of Jesus Christ must be as wise at least as these insects. To preach the word is important, but it is equally important to build places for stated worship. The bee must have her hive; the farmer must have his granary for grain, his mow for hay, and his stable for horse and cow. The family must have its house for home and friend. So the church must have houses of worship, where the people may gather at stated times for instruction and worship.

Our Church is a unit from the Atlantic to the eastern shore of Asia, and we cannot hope to meet our responsibilities to God and men unless we build suitable houses of worship in which to fold the people coming to us. For this end the Church Erection Society was established, and to this end her work is confined. In the years past and gone she has been gathering and using funds to this end alone. By the end of this quadrennium she will have assets exceeding a quarter million of dollars, and the time is now here pressing the Society and the Church for $50,000 in new funds every year. The funds now in hand and loaned out to churches from Bonthe, Africa, to San Francisco, U. S., ought to be returned to the Society in a golden stream of $50,000 of old money, and $50,000 in new funds ought to come in every year. Give the Church Erection Society $100,000 with which to stimulate church-building in our denomination and see what will be done. One hundred thousand dollars in the hands of the Church Erection Society, to be used in a single year, means at least $500,000 in new church-houses in a single year. Let us give the Church Erection Society a chance to do her best for the glory of God and the good of men. All who favor it hold up your hands. Now make good your vote, by giving the Society your money.

We rejoice very much in the success of the Society in raising new funds. Fifty thousand dollars for this year should be, and is the slogan of our genial Secretary. But $50,00 of old funds must be returned every year to make the Society efficient in the work of church-building in our denomination.

RESOLUTION—NO. 4.

Resolved, That the minimum salary plan be continued at $500 and parsonage, and that appropriations to missions be made at least on this basis, where full time is rendered.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FINANCIAL SYSTEM—NO. 5.

We, your committee to recommend a system of finance for the Conference, submit the following:

We recommend—

That giving be made more largely a part of public worship, and that the pastors, with the coöperation of the Conference superintendent, be directed to inaugurate a systematic plan of contribution for current expenses and benevolences in each local church.

That the estimating committee of each pastoral charge be requested to arrange the matter of salary with their pastor within four weeks after the adjournment of the Annual Conference; and that the stewards be urged to secure, by subscription or otherwise, the amount agreed upon for pastor's salary and the assessment for presiding elder's salary as early as possible; and that the members of each local church be requested to contribute, through envelope, a proportionate amount of their obligation at every regular preaching service.

We further recommend—

That each local church elect a treasurer, who shall keep a correct record of all contributions made, and pay the same to the pastor weekly or monthly, and a receipt shall be his voucher to the general steward at the quarterly conference for money thus paid.

That the official board of each local church, with the pastor, agree upon an amount for foreign missions, and that the same be added to the Conference assessments, and the total amount be secured, in pledges, under the direction of the pastor, within the first quarter of the Conference year. We suggest, also, that the donors contribute quarterly, through envelope, for these benevolences—if practicable, at the quarterly communion service.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION—NO. 6.

We rejoice in the continued prosperity of Union Biblical Seminary and Otterbein University, inasmuch as the past year has been one of the best in the history of each of these institutions, both in student attendance and financial support.

We recognize the necessity of higher Christian education as a means of qualifying our young people for the highest possible usefulness in life.

We also notice with disfavor the prevailing tendencies to secularize and materialize the young life of our youth and drift them away from the simple and all-important Christian faith of our Church.

We believe that Otterbein University provides for such Christian education, under influences that counteract the tendencies above mentioned, which are found in many secular and State schools, and therefore urge our people to send our young people to Otterbein University as a matter of safety, economy, and that they may imbibe the spirit of our own denomination. We pledge our support of the administration in its forward movements for students and in its financial plans and needs, especially the great scheme of raising an endowment fund of $200,000. Also, to look well to our assessments, that the "pay-as-we-go" motto may be kept. We will also seek to increase the student attendance until each appointment has at least one representative, thus giving us 109 instead of 85 students, as in last year.

We wish to commend the aggressive spirit in Union Biblical Seminary, in taking up the live issues of the times; in practical as well as theoretical evangelism, by which the student bands have helped in the winning of about 1,200 souls in the last five terms.

Also, in the introduction of an enlarged course in Sunday-school work in pedagogy and child psychology; also, a course for deaconesses, who shall be trained to assist pastors, and the enlarged course in pastoral theology; and insist that persons desiring to work in any of these fields avail themselves of as much of the training in these departments as possible.

We are pleased with the magnificent Bonebrake gift, and hope many more of our people will give likewise, such amounts as they may be able to give.

We believe in the necessity of the Seminary to our denomination, and in its great success in the future, and pledge it our sympathy, prayers, and financial support.

J. W. KILBOURN, Committee.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOLS—NO. 6½.

We are living in an age of individual freedom. Liberty of thought is no longer the statement of a theory, but of a fact in our modern life. Men are doing their own thinking, making their own decisions, deciding their own destiny.

The thinking man who lives in a thinking age will not only be influenced by the reasoning of others, but will help mold the thought of his day. Hence we find that old moorings are constantly broken. The coming generation must be trained to adapt itself to ever-changing environments.

The Sabbath school is the church at work. Here we find the young and the old compactly and definitely organized for Christian discipline and service. What an opportunity the church has in the Sabbath school!

Here are gathered the children and youth of our land during that period when character and personality are taking form, when impressions are deepest and most lasting.

The church should be found at work in the Sabbath school, seeking to bring the youth to the fullest possible development in the moral and religious life, thus preparing them for the largest usefulness in our complex modern life.

The really fundamental thing in life is the choice of a religion. Each individual must face this problem; must decide for the religion of mammon or of Christ. Which?

The duty of the Sabbath school is to make it easy to decide for Christ. The feet of the child should be put on the road that leads to the feet of God. While the character is plastic, while the inspiration of friendships is strong in the heart, let pastor and Christian teachers help make and mold the lives of the youth, that they may make choice of the things eternal.

We can rejoice in the fact that the Sabbath school is advancing toward better methods and more effective work. Who can estimate the good done by or through the influence of the 170,000 Sunday schools that meet every Lord's day? Think of over fifteen million persons meeting every week to study the Word of God! Should it not command our interest and most earnest support? As a church, we have our part in this mighty work of God.

Let us sow beside all waters, and trust the Lord of the harvest, who sendeth the rain in its season, to bring the day of reaping, when he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.

We note with pleasure the thorough organization of the Sabbath school, reaching from the little babe to the aged fathers and mothers, including all in the great school of the church.

We realize the importance of trained teachers, and urge our young people to prepare for this great field of service.

We urge the observance of special days in the school, believing that definite results may thus be attained.

We hail with delight the adult movement, and believe that any school will be greatly blessed that will organize its classes for aggressive work.

The Adult Quarterly, our new Sabbath-school help, will be found to meet the needs of adult classes, offering many good suggestions and plans for class work, as well as furnishing splendid, up-to-date comments on the lesson.

We believe the Sabbath school to be a great field for missionary training, and suggest that all our schools be instructed along missionary lines, and that monthly offerings be taken for missions.

J. M. Replogle, Committee.

POINTERS.

Those who represent the Sunday-School Board before Annual Conference bodies should emphasize, among other things, the following:

I. What, with the blessing of God, the Sunday-School Board of our denomination has been able to do:

1. It has helped, with the use of only about $40,000, to start or to sustain many thousands of Sunday schools, and these in all the conferences of the Church. At this time we are giving financial help to about 300 schools, many of which could not exist but for this help. This costs us nearly $2,000 a year.

2. It has enrolled as students of teacher-training courses about 8,000 teachers, 1,200 of whom have already finished the work and received graduation. In this it is a leader among the denominations.

3. It has, only within the last nine months, enrolled 202 organized adult Bible classes, with 6,273 members. In this also it is a leader.

4. It has many thousands of members in both Home and Cradle-Roll departments.

5. It has employed, or helped to employ an extra field force of from one to four persons as evangels and as organizers and inspirers of Sunday-school work during the last two years. These are still in the field. In this we are a long way behind. Other denominations are employing very many more than we. Unless we bestir ourselves, we will surely suffer at least arrested development.

II. What we purpose to do, and will, as rapidly as possible:

1. Employ a largely-increased field force, until we have at least two in each Bishop's district, with one at least in each State as a goal to be attained.

2. Through the additional help of these field workers, and continuing our present plans, we expect to very rapidly increase and extend our Teacher-Training and our Adult, Intermediate, Home, and Cradle-Roll departments, until in the end every school in the Church shall feel the thrill of the new life that shall come as a result.

How can this be accomplished?

Only by securing more money with which to employ more men and women. For this we must depend on the organized Church. Bishops, presiding elders, and preachers helping to inform and inspire our people, will do it. When our people know, they will do.

Insist on the full apportionment of the three cents per member by the Conference Finance Committee, and then its full collection. Also, that every school in the Church should send an offering on Children's Day. Why do we allow ourselves to be so far outstripped by denominations smaller than we? Cannot our people be made to see our duty and privilege in this particular? Certainly if their leaders would, they could help them to know.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN MISSIONS—NO. 10.

The task of world evangelization is our Divine Master's final and great imperative. While the work is still unfinished we rejoice in the throngs of youths in all lands who are answering our Lord's call. The army of workers is rapidly increasing, and the movement forward is becoming accelerated. We believe that the only way for the Church to save itself and the race is to reach out after both the nearest and farthest man.

The past twelve months have been eventful in the making of missionary history, the sweeping union campaigns in more than twenty leading cities of the States and Canada, resulting in an increase of contributions from two to four fold in the various churches.

The great Young People's Missionary Convention, held at Pittsburg last week, and the deputations of nearly one hundred visiting laymen to foreign fields, are all significant events of the past year.

We regard the visits of Bishop Mills and Doctors Funk and Hough to our own various fields as both timely, and of immense value in bringing information and stimulus to both the home and foreign churches.

We would recommend the following:

1. That we hold a Missionary Institute on or about the last week of September. This Institute to be held in a centrally located church, and to last for one day only.

2. That we place strong emphasis on the books prepared for this year, two of which are prepared by our board. The Church in Earnest—just from the press is a book admirably adapted for purposes of training for larger things in the home church.

3. "Our Foreign Missionary Enterprise" will give a thorough and comprehensive description of our present fields and agencies at work, and will be invaluable as affording a source of knowledge never before offered to our people.

4. "The Why and How of Foreign Missions," by Doctor Brown—a splendid book on the administration and methods of missionary work. Every pastor should see to it that his Sunday schools and Young People's Societies are engaged in the study of these books.

5. That each pastor appoint a Committee on Missions at the beginning of the Conference year, whose duty it shall be to awaken interest and to canvas the church membership for an offering. The Committee should agree upon a fixed sum as an aim for the charge of at least twenty-five cents per member, and carry forward its work through the year in a systematic manner—receiving contributions either weekly, monthly, or quarterly.

6. That above all we foster in the lives of our people the prayer spirit for the speedy evangelization of our own land and all the world.

W. L. Bunger,
G. Mahlon Miller,
J. G. Huber.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON HOME MISSIONS—NO. 11½.

Home mission work is fundamental. It lies at the foundation of church life and growth. There must be a local church before any general church interests can be promoted. Therefore in proportion as we promote home missions do we strengthen the base of supply for world evangelism.

The growth of this important interest of the Church during the past year, as shown by the report of our heroic secretary, has been most gratifying, indeed phenomenal, in all its departments of work. Home missions are taking hold of the people's hearts.

Three years ago there came to the general treasury from all sources, $14,000. Two years ago the receipts were a little less than $24,000, the past year, as shown by the report of the treasurer, the receipts from all sources were about $40,000. The observance of "Home Missionary Day" in February last, helped to bring about this splendid result. We must not, however, be satisfied with this increase, but press on to even greater things for the Master.

The success achieved by the few Woman's Missionary Auxiliaries that have been organized show the great wisdom of pushing that part of the work. A partial financial report shows that from one hundred local societies $3,000 was brought into the conference and general missionary treasuries. The spiritual benefits resulting from house-to-house visitation, and other activities cannot be measured.

It is gratifying to know that the growth of the spiritual interests of the work has been commensurate with its financial interests. In the one hundred and twenty missions supported in whole, or in part, by the society, there was a net gain in membership during the past year of thirteen per cent. If the entire Church had shared a similar gain, our increase of membership for the year would have exceeded 35,000. Excellent work has been done by the evangelists in the field. Over one thousand souls were converted, at a cost to the society of seventy-four cents each. The cost of the accessions to the Church amounts to $1.04 each.

The educational work of the society has been a mighty factor in the development of all its interests. In proportion to our church membership our Home Missionary Society is leading the denominations in mission study. The efforts of the society to inform our people on this great interest of the church by the sale of books, and the circulation of free literature, in tract, and booklet form, have been greatly blessed of the Lord. One mission study book was sold during the past year to every fifty-seven of the membership of the Church.

This revival in home missionary interest is timely from a denominational point of view. The outlook on our home missionary field is expressed in one word and that word is "opportunity." It is also timely from the viewpoint of the need of the home-land. Of our 87,000,000 population but 21,000,000 are nominal Christians; that is, have their names recorded on the Protestant church record. Paganism is increasingly aggressive. Four heathen temples have been built during the past year, making fifty-one in all on our shores. Great problems confront the church of America, upon the solution of which, the Christianization of the world depends. These facts ought to put the church on her face before God.

Inasmuch as the Church through the Home Missionary Society is making an heroic effort to assume her share of the responsibility of Christianizing America, and is struggling to establish the denomination in the great centers of population, and inasmuch as the amount secured through the conference assessments is far too small to adequately promote the work, therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we appreciate the splendid work being done by the secretary, and that as a conference we will endeavor to increase our assessments, and offerings to this great and vital interest of the church.

2. That we urge our stronger congregations to take up the support of an associate pastor in some one of our home mission fields. The amounts appropriated by the society range from fifty to eight hundred dollars. Even some of the smaller churches might take a hundred-dollar associate pastorate. By applying to the secretary a list can be secured of the places and appropriations.

3. That in harmony with the other evangelical churches of the country we observe a day of prayer for Home Missions (the date to be determined upon by the Executive Committee of the Home Mission Board), when each department of the local church will join in making it an occasion of education and blessing.

4. Recognizing the imperative need of an organized effort upon the part of the women of the church to aid in mission work in the home land, we as a conference will gladly welcome any assistance in organizing Women's Home Missionary societies within our bounds.

5. That we commend Bishop W. M. Weekley and Dr. H. H. Fout in writing, and the Home Missionary Society in publishing our own denominational study book, "Our Heroes," or "United Brethren Home Missionaries." As the study of this excellent book can but produce loyalty to the Church with all its interests, we pledge ourselves as ministers and laymen to push its study among our people—in the Young People's Societies, the Adult Classes of the Sunday school, and in the entire congregation.

6. That we will coöperate with our conference Home Missionary Committee in holding home missionary rallies and in spreading information or otherwise aiding the cause of home missions.

H. H. Fout,
P. M. Camp,
C. W. Kurtz,
H. H. Haller,
C. W. Stephens,
Committee.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS—NO. 12.

Among the foremost agencies of power in the world is the printed page, the leaflet, the newspaper, the magazine, the book.

Whether or not any given branch of this great agency of power is a minister of good, uplifting and enriching individual character, and redeeming and transforming society, depends upon the character of the avowed purposes of its founders and the personality, faithfulness, and efficiency of its promoters.

The attention of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ being aroused to the importance of the use of the press in the prosecution of its work by the unsuccessful personal attempt of a Mr. Farmer in 1829, to establish a religious newspaper, the General Conference of 1833 "resolved to establish a paper devoted to religious, moral, and literary intelligence." From this beginning our publishing interests have grown.

The line of agents and editors is an illustrious one in our history, and is composed of the best men of our Church.

We believe this institution was founded in the wisdom and the will of God. His servants have sought to work out his will through the passing years.

We reäffirm our confidence in the business ability and integrity of the present agent, Dr. W. R. Funk, and congratulate him and the Church on the present achievements and the broad lines for the future. We rejoice in the development and growth of the mail order department of the House, the increasing volume of business in the job department, and the enlargement and equipment in buildings, ground, and machinery.

The editors of our periodicals who furnish many of the thoughts that men are thinking are scholarly, spiritual, and thoroughly loyal to our denominational interests.

Our periodicals, being made better and better, are deserving of a wider circulation among our church families, and we will coöperate in seeking to bring this about.

The Adult Department Quarterly is a helpful addition to the list of Sunday-school literature. With gratitude to God we receive the heritage bequeathed to us by the founders, and conserved and fostered by present servants of the Master, and pledge to them our united and hearty coöperation.

Respectfully submitted,
WARREN L. BUNGER, Committee.

RESOLUTION—NO. 12½.

We greatly appreciate the presence and earnest words of Mrs. W. O. Fries, the representative of the Miami Branch W. M. A. We pledge to these noble sisters our hearty coöperation in our Master's work.

WARREN L. BUNGER.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE—NO. 13.

We record our utter abhorrence of the liquor traffic, as a business at once injurious, immoral, and antagonistic to every interest of church and State. We therefore declare the whole business to be an outlaw that ought not to be permitted to live, but should be pursued with determination until it is completely annihilated. The saloon is one of the most heartless enemies of mankind. Although liquor dealers are ever ready to bear a prominent part in every public gathering; at least whenever their interests are not assailed, and although they at times support some benevolent and human enterprise, nevertheless their ultimate aim is not the welfare of their fellowmen, but an increase of their traffic in strong drink.

Whenever a liquor dealer leads in any public movement there is strong ground for suspicion that the liquor traffic will be favored with the lion's share of the profit. They offer a free lunch, but will take the last penny out of the purse of their victims for strong drink. And the same heartless principle is carried out in all their relations to society.

They spread out their nets, and the slaves to King Alcohol are ensnared in flocks. In our cities the common day laborers furnish the saloon the largest and most regular patronage. A great many of these poor toilers visit the saloons as regularly as they go to their meals. Not a few are so ignorant as to think that their daily portion of beer is as necessary to their health and strength as their daily bread.

It is said that of the poor nineteen out of every twenty are made poor by the liquor traffic. Three-fourths of the poverty, crime, and wretchedness of our land are caused by drink.

One-fourth of the divorces are caused by drunkenness. Oh, that they would listen to the voice of some prophet, who would gladly proclaim and substantiate the fact to them that men who endure hard labor the best, and men who are the most skilled are not those who patronize the saloon. On the contrary, men are in greater demand who abstain from strong drink. Strong drink is a curse to the body, and a prey on the physical strength.

But when everybody is crying "hard times" the saloons are reaping a rich harvest. When shops shut down and men are not needed on public works, which support so many foreigners, because they are cheap laborers, there is no cessation to the liquor business; rather the contrary, liquor dealers have an increase in patronage.

Saloons are decorated when laborers are on a strike, or out of employment, because to them it is a profitable affair. Every other business may suffer during a financial crisis, but the saloon knows no hard times, except when a religious revival sweeps over the town. We hereby record our sympathy and readiness to coöperate with all forms of organized effort, having for their object the speedy accomplishment of the great temperance reform.

To accomplish this great work, great faith, energy, and patience are necessary. Let us not be weary in well doing. Victory will yet perch upon our banners.

Respectfully submitted,

M. F. Hawley, Committee.

RECOMMENDATION—NO. 13½.

We commend and appreciate the action of the last Legislature of Ohio in passing the Crist Law and the Rose County Local Option Law, and hereby express our appreciation of their courage and fidelity to the highest interest of the State.

We commend the action of Governor Harris for signing these laws and standing unflinchingly for the right.

We appreciate and commend his action at Lancaster, Ohio, on August 19, when he said publicly that he expected no quarter from the liquor interest, and expected to give none.

We gladly meet the challenge of the liquor forces of Ohio and the nation, and we are in this war to stay until the last saloon in our country has been buried forever.

G. P. Macklin.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE—NO. 14.

Sabbath observance—rest, sacred, divinely given, not man bought, but God given! To be used by man for holy purposes, for his soul's enrichment, that he might be the better equipped for the work of the following six days! The Sabbath becomes a day of offense to some; to others it is a day of defense. So sacred is the day that God has, from the first command, given it regnancy in Holy Writ, as no other day is given, for one-seventh of the time he set apart for the development of his own image, called man. Never has any tyrannic rule caused any one to love and hold sacred the command of God for the Sabbath day. The Master came and gave to us lessons of charity, and his love for the hungry disciples outran the respect for the law of the Pharisees when he plucked the ears of corn on the Sabbath day and gave to the disciples to eat. This act was not the breaking of a divine law, but the teaching of a great lesson. This act of the Master does not give us the license to break both the law of man and God, that we might satisfy the passions of the flesh. If God sanctified the day, and called it a holy day, should we not, as his children, keep it as a sacred gift from Heaven? It is a divine ordinance. God took six days to make the universe, but he took the day following those six to rest. Surely here are two lessons taught at the very beginning of things: Rest is to follow work; and, further, that a seventh part of time is thus to be devoted. This is divine love, in that he commanded us to keep it holy. As a toiler, man would soon wear out in both body and brain but for its rest. Mr. Gladstone said, "I owe my life and vigor, through a long and busy life, to the Sabbath day, with its blessed surcease of toil."

Work is a divine requirement. But beside his physical nature, man has a higher self in which to be interested. The constant occupation of the mind with earthly things leads to soul ruin, to a total degradation of man's better self.

That the Jews might know the approach of the Sabbath, a trumpet announced it by three blasts from the roof of the spacious synagogue of the town. The first blast warned the peasants in the far-stretching vineyards and gardens to cease their toil; the second was the signal for the townsfolk to close their business for the week; and the third for all to kindle the holy Sabbath light which was to burn till the sacred day was past.

Why was it so enjoined on the Jews to keep this day? We read of no other nation so obligated. The thoughtful might find answers to this question, and the merely imaginative more; but we think two things may be said in reply which largely cover the situation: First, God designed that the Sabbath should be perpetual, hence it was that he put it into the custody of a whole nation, made it a part of its law, enforced it by fearful penalties. He himself, in a special sense, took charge of it. In a nation's keeping, as part of its government, it was not likely to be forgotten. Second, because of its inconceivable importance to man. It was this importance that made him so desirous of its perpetuity. If God is so much interested in man, should he not be interested in himself to keep one-seventh of the time?

The human family should not heed the bugle blast of the present-day announcements, through the printing-press, on the billboards, and in the street-cars, announcing those things that mar, wreck, and ruin the spirit-man, and feed the passions of the natural man, and bring a reproach upon the holy Sabbath day.

Is it not true that the Sabbath day of the summer is peculiarly known from another day by the cry of the newsboy, the overcrowded cars, and the vacant pews in the churches? We are compelled to recognize the fact that both Nation, State, county, and municipality, which are the people, have lost the reverence of our forefathers for the holy Sabbath. I repeat, Is it not true that even the churches relax at the approach of the summer and abandon their special features which were so efficient in the winter to draw and hold the masses? The churches are weak many times in their directing as to what it means to keep the Sabbath. One teaches that the attendance of one service on the Sabbath will fill the requirements, though the remaining part of the day be spent in the parks or in riotous living. Another would have her people observe the day so closely that even a meal is not cooked or any manual labor, though innocuous of itself, shall be performed. The ox in the pit must be a valuable one if assistance is rendered. Such is their belief of the observance of the holy Sabbath day. Between these two extremes many of the church people are living, as well as some of the non-church people.

Out of the churches you can draw nearly as many opinions as there are members, so what is the inquirer after the truth to do? I do not wonder that men are bewildered. Here is one who says you can't ride on a car on Sunday and be a Christian. Another would condemn everything of an amusement nature, and when this inquirer sees members of the various churches buying meat, milk, and other things of less importance, and going to the parks, or visiting, and neglecting divine worship, reading secular Sunday papers, or some other worthless print, I ask again, Need we wonder why the world is bewildered, when it sees such a conflicting of opinions, of profession, and of living? The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau. I answer, It is no wonder that he thinks within himself that this day is a day for the seeking of self and for the appeasing of the passions of the flesh. You may answer that these are the minor things. The manna was a small thing, but when gathered on the Sabbath day it was not fit for food, it was unholy and offensive, though rich and blessed of God when gathered on another day. Is it not true that we are continually passing resolutions concerning these things, and we may continue to pass them from now until the judgment day, and post them on every gate and door of the parks and saloons of our land, and yet men will continue to desecrate the day. God gave the command, "Remember the sabbath day to keep it holy," nearly four thousand years ago, and it has been a torchlight of warning, written, read, and broken by men as if it were naught. To-day desecration is at a higher rampant than at any time for centuries.

I think the better rule would be that of holy living by the church and the individual. The home should be an Eden full of bliss. There are no real blissful homes where the Sabbath is not kept. The Sabbath brings the family together, gives the husband a day at home, and strengthens domestic loves. "Mother," said a little girl, "you seem so happy always on the Sabbath; I wish it were Sabbath every day." This ought to be the experience of every follower of Christ and make the day a blessing to humanity, so attractive that the world would hail it with reverence and delight. The present-day Sabbath is a type of the eternal Sabbath day, so let us keep it as we shall wish to reap its fruits through eternity.

REPORT ON Y. P. S. C. E. U.—NO. 23.

As we review again and again the marvelous influence of the Christ-life upon individuals, homes, communities, and nations, we are brought to serious meditation as to what characteristics in his life made him the peer of mankind in his power to influence, uplift, help, and save humanity. His purity, his love, and his wisdom stand like mountain peaks made radiant by the morning sunlight and towering heavenward as if to reach the blue, pointing with unmistaken definiteness to the source of all divine help and all lasting joy and peace in our God and Heavenly Father. But another characteristic of his matchless life, which stands as high as any other, which shines, if possible, with a more brilliant luster and was more massive and far-reaching in its extent, was his practical helpfulness.

The eager desire for practical help led the throngs to crowd about Him in village and city and follow him along the highways, the thousands to gather upon the lake and hillside to hear and be fed, the sick of body and soul to cry for healing, the blind and deaf to plead for sight and hearing, young and old, rich and poor, learned and unlearned, high and low, to seek in some way, private or public, to touch him or have him touch them with his touch of practical helpfulness.

Following his example, disciple, missionary, explorer, preacher, evangelist, and Christian workers of all climes have gone across continent and sea to carry this glorious gospel of helpfulness.

In order to advance the kingdom of Christ in our churches, two things must be sought vigorously: First, to influence men to accept and confess Christ. Second, to develop them into practically helpful Christian workers, so that they may be able to help influence others, and thus carry on the never-ending, ever-progressing march of Christ's conquering hosts.

We recognize the Sunday school as the mightiest factor of the church in influencing into its folds such as have accepted Christ as their Savior, but is it not a fact that we are not having in the church to-day such systematic training as to make even the half of her members practically helpful in a spiritual way to the church and community. Where shall we look for this increased training so much needed, if not to the Young People's society? Ought not the Y. P. S. C. E. U. be made a training school for public prayer, public testimony, and practical helpfulness in general that shall fit our young people to take the places soon to be vacated by the aged fathers and mothers, also to enlarge the company known as the faithful few?

These things being evidently true, therefore be it

Resolved, 1. That we earnestly endeavor to get out of the old rut of song and Scripture verse in our Young People's meetings and strive to make the meetings of such a character as will train workers for a lifetime of practical service to the church.

2. That we send the largest delegation to the convention at Lockington, October 15 and 16, that Miami Conference has ever sent, for the inspiration of such conventions will thus be carried back and fire the entire society from which they came.

3. That we make the anniversary offering next May the best yet, for money helps the cause along.

4. That our aim this year be not one hundred mission study classes in this Conference, but a foreign and home class in every society, for the missionary spirit is a practically helpful spirit.

5. That, in harmony with the action of the Biennial Convention, we would recommend the appointing of a committee on Christian stewardship, whose duty it shall be to awaken interest on this great Christian duty and privilege.

Respectfully submitted,

W. T. Frank, Committee.

REV. WM. MCKEE, D.D.—No. 24½.

William McKee was born in Fairfield County, Ohio, February 20, 1831, and died in Dayton, Ohio, on the morning of October 5, 1907, aged 76 years, 7 months, and 15 days. At the age of twelve years he removed with his father's family to Blackford County, Indiana, then a wild and sparsely-settled region of that State. He was educated in the public schools and in a seminary at Marion, Ind. Early in life he developed a keen and determined taste for books and hard study, and soon acquired a sufficient knowledge and mental training to make him an efficient teacher in the common schools of his time. He was twice married, first in 1855, to Miss Amanda J. Perkins, and, upon her demise, to Mrs. Lydia Brackney Ulrey in 1875. He was converted in 1852, joined the United Brethren Church in 1853, became a member of Auglaize Conference in 1856, and was ordained in 1858. Since 1868, he was a member of the Miami Conference to the hour of his death. During his connection with the Auglaize Conference he served as pastor and presiding elder, and in 1863 and 1864 as a missionary among the freedmen of the South, in the midst of the war of the rebellion. He preached and taught school among the newly-liberated slaves in Vicksburg and Davis Bend in Mississippi. In 1865, upon the resignation of Mr. T. N. Sowers, Brother McKee was elected Assistant Publishing Agent of the Printing Establishment. This office he resigned in 1866, to accept the treasurership of the United Brethren Missionary Society, to which position he was reëlected from time to time until his work as treasurer and acting secretary of the missionary and kindred societies, with four years more as General Treasurer of all our benevolences, aggregated twenty-eight years, and covered more than one-half of his ministerial career. He was seven times a delegate to the General Conference. He was long a director of the Missionary Society and of the General Sabbath-School Association, a trustee of Otterbein University, a member of the Executive Committee of Union Biblical Seminary, from 1881 to 1889 a trustee of the Publishing House, and since 1889, a member and treasurer of the General Board of Church Trustees. He was a delegate to the Methodist Ecumenical Council which met in the city of Washington in 1891, and more recently a member of the great convention of the federation of the churches of America, held in Carnegie Hall, in New York City. In the Miami Conference he was pastor of First Church, and Miami Chapel, Dayton, Springfield, Vandalia, and Kingsville charges, closing his service on this latter field at the late session of the Miami Conference in this city. Thus ceasing to work, he ceased to live. Besides these pastorates, he gave twelve years to the presiding eldership. In the midst of this multiplicity of duties he found time to become the author of a history of the West African mission of our Church, a large chapter on "The Final Destiny of the Wicked," in Bishop Weaver's volume on "Christian Doctrine," also, a joint author with Rev. D. K. Flickinger, of "Ethiopia Coming to God." All this array of responsibility, trust, and honor came without solicitation, direct or indirect, from the recipient. William McKee was not an office-seeker. He was a man of rare modesty and unselfishness. His whole life was an open book. His character in the home as husband and father, in the church and the world, was ever such as to challenge the admiration, the confidence, the love, and esteem of all men. It was the magnetism of his piety, his intelligence, and upright living that brought him public trust and honor. After an acquaintance and intimate companionship, in private and public life, for more than forty-five years, it seems proper that the writer of this brief biography should record, in addition, a few of his impressions of the life and character of William McKee. First, and above all, he unceasingly impressed all who knew him as a man of God, of pure heart and clean lips, ever hungering and thirsting after righteousness. Second, he was no trifler. Conscientiousness and deep sincerity marked all his acts and words. Third, he was an untiring worker. Night and day he was about his Master's business. He never slept until his day's work was done. Fourth, as a steward of God and the custodian and disburser of millions of the Church's money, for more than a quarter of a century, his integrity was never questioned, and he goes to his grave leaving a spotless name as to financial honesty—a record and legacy of no mean value to the Church, as well as to his bereaved wife and children. Fifth, he ever impressed others as a reader and student of the best literature in our language. He possessed a most retentive memory, and often, in his sermons and addresses, quoted freely from the best poetic and prose authors. Sixth, Brother McKee was a man of high ideals of right. He early in life aligned himself with all the great reform movements of his time, and was always outspoken in their defense and advocacy. Seventh, in all our social and business intercourse he was transparent and candid, seeking only what was true and good. A Christian gentleman of the highest type. To part with such a friend for all time brings a sorrow akin to that of parting with a dear brother after the flesh. When he was my pastor in our younger days, I sat under his ministry with much pleasure and spiritual profit. He was a clear and logical thinker, an expounder of the Word to the edification of his people and a faithful shepherd of his flock. His final departure forever from family, church, conference, and the world will make his presence sadly missed by thousands who knew him only to love and respect him. He has "made his calling and election sure." To us, he "sleeps in Jesus." He, himself, has become the happy occupant of the "house not made with hands eternal in the heavens." His beloved widowed wife, with whom he walked in conjugal and loving fellowship for more than thirty years; three sons, Mark, William and Earnest; one daughter, Mrs. Dr. J. R. McCally, and one sister, Mrs. Laura Johnson, survive him, and were present to follow his remains to their last resting place. To all these bleeding, lascerated hearts, we can only say, The life and example of your departed dear one must be your greatest comfort and inspiration to holy living. To have such a man as husband and father is an honor of the highest worth, especially to these sons as an example worthy of constant imitation. Jesus Christ, the greatest physician, only can heal your broken hearts. The funeral of Brother McKee was very largely attended; one of the largest ever seen in Dayton. Rev. P. M. Camp, pastor of our Summit Street Church, had charge of the services. Dr. G. A. Funkhouser offered prayer, Rev. J. L. Swain, Dr. I. L. Kephart, and Rev. D. R. Miller participated in the services by many tender and appropriate words and reminicences in the life history of Brother McKee. His remains sleep in beautiful Woodland Cemetery, within a few steps of the graves of Bishop Edwards, Rev. Wm. Mittendorf, Professor J. W. Etter, and many others of our United Brethren sainted dead.

W. J. Shuey.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hamilton—No. 25.

Elizabeth, daughter of Jacob and Mariah Francis, was born in Butler County, Ohio, December 20, 1850. Was united in marriage to George W. Hamilton November 19, 1876. She was converted in 1867—in her seventeenth year, under the pastorate of Rev. C. W. Miller, who received her into Church membership, and baptized her, and for forty years she was a loyal, active, consecrated member of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ. She was a devoted mother—deeply interested in the temporal and spiritual welfare of her children, and by precept and example endeavored to lead them to pure and noble living, and she had the satisfaction and delight of seeing them walking in the steps of her divine Master—thus showing their appreciation of her life and example. She was a model wife—the heart of her husband safely trusted in her—she did him good, and not evil all the days of her life, and worked diligently with her hands, looking well to the ways of her household. As her husband's companion and coworker as preacher and pastor, she was the peer of any—entering into the work with willing hands and earnestness of heart and purposes, and to her helpfulness Brother Hamilton attributes in a large measure whatever success has attended his ministry. She was deeply interested in the Woman's Missionary work of the Church, and was a life director of the society. Sister Hamilton had a deep and joyous religious experience. She lived in close communion and fellowship with her Savior, and constantly basked in the sunshine of his loving presence. She was a woman of pure heart and mind, and of clean lips. She was a lover of the beautiful in nature—took great delight in flowers and the foliage of the forest. It was seemly that she should go in the glorious autumn time when the trees of the wood were clothed in their garments of purple and gold. Sister Hamilton was deeply sympathetic—she sought to comfort the distressed and sorrowing, and ministered cheerfully and liberally to the destitute and needy. Her life has been a benediction on all the charges they have served, and now that she rests from her labors, her works do follow her. In her life she has left an inheritance to her husband and children above the price of rubies. Her death was a wonderful victory of grace. Her death chamber was the vestibule of heaven. Those present saw and felt the presence of the Prince of life—the conqueror of death. As the blood-washed spirit quit the tenement of clay, the gates of the city of God swung wide on their hinges of gold, and she entered into life on Tuesday evening, October 22, 1907.

J. L. Swain.

G. W. Witters—No. 26.

Geo. W. Witters was born in Greenville, Ohio, February 19, 1869, and died in Union City, Ind., February 13, 1908, aged 38 years, 11 months, and 6 days. Received a common school education. Was converted December 31, 1883, at the Waterhouse church, in a meeting conducted by Rev. Sam Huddle. A number of years after his conversion he was granted quarterly conference license. Four years ago he was assigned to the Yorkshire charge, which he served for two years very acceptably, when he was transferred to the Rossburg charge. In these four years of pastoral work over a hundred souls were converted in his meetings. In his death he left to mourn his loss a wife, five children, a father, four brothers, and a sister. He was a careful, earnest, consistent, self-sacrificing Christian worker, and was glad to give his life for the cause of Christ.

Christian Bodey—No. 27.

Rev. Christian Bodey was born in Champaign County, Ohio, July 8, 1843. He was married to Naomi E. McAlexander, June 29, 1865. To them were born four children, three sons, and one daughter. The three sons and the mother survive him. Brother Bodey was converted and joined the United Brethren Church at Antioch, near Rosewood, Ohio, in 1861. In the year of 1870 he was granted quarterly conference license to preach the gospel, and in the autumn of 1873 joined the Auglaize Conference. He served a number of charges in the Conference as pastor and was known as a tender-hearted, faithful preacher of the Word of God. Owing to ill health and other causes he was compelled to locate, and for a number of years sustained a superannuated relation to the conference of which he was a member. When the Auglaize Conference was dissolved he transferred to Miami Conference, and was a member of our Conference at the time of his death. It was the writer's privilege to visit Brother Bodey a number of times during the last few months that he lived. I always found him enjoying a good degree of grace, and while his sufferings were great at times, yet he maintained a sweet spirit of submission to the will of God at all times, and in this way set an example for others to follow. His interest in the Master's work was such that when not having the opportunity to attend the church of his choice, he attended the Lutheran Sunday-school and church services at St. Paris, Ohio, and was their Sabbath-school superintendent at the time of his death. His widow and children need, and I am sure will have the sympathy and prayers of the Conference. He died at his home in St. Paris, Ohio, December 19, 1907, aged 64 years, 5 months, and 11 days.

G. W. Hamilton, Pastor.

Rev. Daniel Myers—No. 28.

Rev. Daniel Myers was born November 5, 1827, in Preble County, Ohio. He was the youngest of a family of nine children. He was converted when a young man, and united with the Church of the United Brethren in Christ. He was licensed to preach and ordained an elder by the St. Joseph Annual Conference, and was received into the Miami Annual Conference on his transfer from the St. Joseph Annual Conference in 1874. He sustained a local relation all his ministerial life, never having served a charge as pastor. In the earlier years of his ministerial life when there was a greater demand for the services of local preachers he preached quite frequently. In later years, while he preached occasionally, he took his place as a layman in the local church where he held his membership, and did his full duty in sustaining the work of the Master in every way. He entered into the better life on the fifth day of January, 1908. J. L. SWAIN.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BIBLE SOCIETY—NO. 30.

The evangelization of the world is the dearest wish of every heart that throbs in unison with the great heart of Christ, the world's Redeemer. One of the most effective means of accomplishing this most desired end is the circulation of the sacred Scriptures over the entire globe.

The American Bible Society is confessedly the greatest, the mightiest agency in the world for this very purpose, and is entitled to our most earnest sympathy and support for the great and beneficent work it is doing.

It has published the Bible, or portions of the same, in four hundred and seventy languages and dialects.

It furnishes gratuitously its sacred products to all and every missionary society of every name and order, and in any language.

It is especially to be congratulated on its splendid effort and success in spreading abroad the Word of God in China, India, and Japan.

We rejoice that our own missionaries in the Philippines have been able to contribute to this notable advance by themselves translating portions of the Scripture into Ilocano.

Resolved, 1. That we will not fail as ministers to mention the name and to speak of the merits of the work of the American Bible Society.

2. That we will encourage contributions for its support, and give our people an opportunity to give for its maintenance and enlargement.

J. H. Mayne,
W. C. Niswonger,
W. J. Pruner,
Committee.

RESOLUTIONS—NO. 31.

Whereas, God's own institution, the church, always has and ever will be the medium through which the Spirit of God operates for the Christianization of the world, and that since the church ordains men and women to the office of the ministry, to nurture and promote God's interests entrusted to the church, therefore be it.

Resolved, 1. That we make II. Tim. 2:15 the standard of our pulpits and lives. "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

2. That we aim to make our ministry universal, giving due emphasis to every interest of the Church, "our whole lives for the whole world."

3. That we give more attention, in our pastorates, to directing young men to the ministry.

4. That we urge with greater emphasis the necessity of our young people attending our own institutions of learning.

5. That we tender our heart-felt thanks to the pastor and congregation of this Church for the cordial manner in which they have cared for our interests during this entire Conference session, for their bounteousness toward us in all things.

6. That we commend the faithful and impartial ruling of our presiding officer, Bishop Mills, as well as the uplifting talks to the Conference.

7. That we most highly appreciate the splendid and uplifting selections by our Conference Quartet.

Respectfully,
P. M. CAMP.

RESOLUTION—NO. 32.

That we heartily endorse the action of our Mission Boards in publishing books, descriptive of our own denominational missionary work; namely, "Our Foreign Missionary Enterprise"and "Our Heroes," and we pledge ourselves to do all in our power to introduce both these books, and "The Church in Earnest" among our people for purposes of study and training.
